

General Information

The Pentek 4231 is a high-performance embedded PC VMEbus processor, which uses the industry standard Intel Pentium CPU. The two-slot (or three-slot) set includes a floppy and hard disk module.

Please contact the factory for the latest information on processors, clock speeds, memory and storage options available.